Duo.....$6.00 each performer

CLASSES

Prose: In prose the speaker is the narrator, with the focus placed on their voice. The selection should include narration description and dialogue. It should be spoken in story-telling style without being performed; there should be no theatrical acting. Competitors may stand or be seated.

Drama: In drama the speaker is the character. The selection can be taken from a published play to be presented on the stage by an actor assuming language, movement, or dress of the character being portrayed. The words should be of one character only. Any additional character(s) lines should be omitted. Monologues are included in the drama class.

Poetry: Speakers may choose to perform either lyric or narrative/dramatic poetry.

-Lyric is a short, unified poem expressing the poet’s own emotions and experiences that is to be presented in any artistic manor the performer sees fit. Alongside speaking; song, dance, and acting can be incorporated into the presentation.

-Narrative poems feature an entire story, told by one narrator from beginning to end. It has a focus on plot over emotions. A clear beginning, middle, and end, with one narrator throughout.

Public Speaking: The selection of Public Speaking must be an original extemporaneous speech and not memorized. Notes should be used but not read from. The speech can be persuasive, informational, or entertaining.
